

Open String Licks 2

This is a great E7 lick! It's actually just a E7 arpeggio, but the open strings makes it sound cool. No speed limit on this one!
But remember, when you learn these licks, play them very slow at first!

Same idea as the lick above, but over an A dominant chord. These licks sounds great in country songs and even in a regular blues, if you would like to spice it up a little!

One of my favourite open string licks in A! You gotta remember this one!
